April 21st 1862.

Received this day the intelligence of the death, by drowning in the Tennessee River, at Savannah, of Hon. Louis P Harvey Governor of this State.

The public offices closed, the bells tolled, and half hour guns fired from 12. M. till sunset.

April 22d 1862. His Excellency, Edward Salomon, Lieut. Governor, on assuming the exercise of the powers and duties of the Executive Office, devolved upon him by the Constitution, issued the following proclamation;

Proclamation

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God to take from the people of this State its Chief Magistrate, the Hon. Louis P Harvey, who, on the 19th day of this month, lost his life in the waters of the Tennessee River, while executing a noble and self chosen mission of philanthropy, in trying to recover from the recent battle field in Tennessee, the dead and to alleviate the sufferings of the wounded soldiers of this State; Therefore

I, Edward Salomon, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, on assuming the duties of the office devolved upon me by that sad event, do hereby in behalf of this State, tender to the bereaved Widow & its late beloved Chief Magistrate, the deep and sorrowful sympathy and condolence of its people;

And I do hereby recommend that for thirty days from this date, all public offices, court houses and other public buildings be clad in mourning, and that during that time the people of this State wear the usual badge of mourning.

May 24 1862. On this day the Governor issued the following proclamation;

Proclamation.

The President of the United States has called upon our State for another regiment of volunteers to join the Army of the nation. The army of the rebellious States has been driven back on many points; their territory is surrounded; they have been beating the many a hard fought battle; yet, while the end of this rebellion seems to be approaching, under the prime graspe of our government, every foot of ground is yet being contested as our forces advance, and guerilla bands swarm over portions of the recovered territory. — Hence the President deems it necessary to increase the army. His appeal will not be in vain.

The more speedily the additional force is raised, the sooner the rebellion will be suppressed.

Men of Wisconsin! I appeal to you to come forward and rally around the flag of our country, for its aid and support, and for the aid and support of our brothers now in arms against the fierce and desperate battallions of the enemy.

Wisconsin has nobly stood by the old flag; 24,000 of her sons have voluntarily gone forward in support of the Union and the Constitution. They call for aid, through the President — let there not be disappointed.

Recruiting officers will be appointed without delay for the 20th Regiment Wisconsin Volunteers, and persons desiring such appointments, or information concerning recruiting regulations, will apply to this Department.

Major General Halleck has also authority from the War Department to fill up his regiments. Recruiting officers will soon be sent here from the Wisconsin regiments in the Army of the Mississippi, and an opportunity will thus be given to join regiments already in the field. I trust that those regiments will be speedily filled, and their thinned ranks be completed and made effective.

Oct. 31st. 1862. On this day the Governor issued the following Proclamation

Proclamation.

Annual Thanksgiving

To the people of Wisconsin:— Amidst the manifold vicissitudes and calamities that have befallen and surrounded us, threatening the life of our nation, and the lives of so many of its heroic and noble sons, it peculiarly becomes us to turn with grateful hearts to the Supreme Being for the many blessings we have enjoyed, and the afflictions we have been spared.

The horrors and devastations of war, so fiercely raging around us, have not touched the border of our State; excepting the brave men who have rallied around our Country's flag in this time of peril; our citizens have been permitted to pursue their peaceful avocations; our harvest, though not as abundant as Providence sometimes has pleased to grant us, has yet well compensated the labor bestowed upon it, and well filled our barns; the savage tribes upon our border settlements, so threatening at one time to our peace, have been quieted, and kept under surveillance.

The great cause of our nation, it is true, has not triumphed yet over its enemies, but neither has it yet failed; the enemy has been driven from the soil of the loyal States; our army has been reinforced by hundreds of thousands of brave, patriotic and noble men ready to do battle, and, if necessary to die for the integrity of the Union; our resources and energies are unimpaired; We have reason to be hopeful for the future, and therefore thankful for the past.

The loyalty, honor, and patriotism of the State of Wisconsin has been nobly sustained by her brave sons upon every field of battle where they have been called upon to vindicate our national flag. The just pride which we feel in the bravery of our noble soldiers should fill our hearts with gratitude to Almighty God, who has sustained them in their hour of trial.

For these and other unnumbered blessings which the infinite goodness of God has vouchsafed to us during the past year, we should thank Him from the depth of our hearts. And therefore, and in accordance with a time honored custom, I do hereby appoint Thursday, The 27th Day of November, 1862, as a Day of Thanksgiving And Prayer, and recommend to the people of this State on that day to abstain from secular labor, and to assemble at their usual places of worship to show their grateful hearts to the beneficent Ruler of the Universe, and to pray for a speedy suppression of the rebellion, and for peace to our distracted country.

(L.S.) In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name, and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed this 31st day of October A.D. 1862.

Nov 11. 1862. On This day The Governor issued The following Proclamation

Proclamation

To the People of Ozaukee County

Information has reached me of a disgraceful and violent disturbance of the public peace and forcible resistance to the draft, accompanied with personal violence to the Commissioner for drafting, and other persons, and destruction of private and public property in your county, I have taken steps to have the perpetrators and abettors of these crimes promptly arrested. They, as well as every person interfering with or resisting the draft, will be arrested and punished according to the Proclamation of the President of the United States, of September 25th, 1862.

It is one of the inherent and necessary powers of every government to call upon its citizens, or subjects, to take up arms in its defence. This power exists, beyond question, in the Government of the United States. An act of Congress has authorized the President to call out the Militia, and the draft ordered in this State, as in all other loyal states, is made in pursuance of that act of Congress. Resistance by you to the Government of the United States, or of this State, is both wrong and vain, and can only lead to calamity and misfortune to those who attempt it. The draft will be executed in your County as well as in every other County in the State, where it has been ordered.

I have sent a sufficient military power into your County under the command of the special Provost-Marshal of the State, appointed by the President of the United States for such and other purposes, in order to arrest those who are guilty of the recent violent resistance to the draft, and to see that the draft is properly enforced in your County, and I now call on you to make no further resistance to the laws of this constituted authorities, but to submit to the laws of the country.

Given under my hand, and the Great Seal of the State, at Madison, this 11th. day of November, in the year of our Lord One Thousand eight Hundred and Sixty two.

Edward Salomon.

Nov 17th. On this day the Governor issued the following Proclamation:
1862.

Proclamation

To The People of Milwaukee County:

Information has reached me of threats and public demonstrations made against the execution of the draft for militia in your County.

By the Constitution of the United States, the supreme Law of the Land, it is provided that, "Congress shall have power to provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrection, and repel invasion." In pursuance of this provision, Congress has authorized the President of the United States to call forth the militia, or a portion of the militia of the States, to suppress insurrection, and the President has accordingly called forth a part of the militia of each State, and for that purpose ordered the present draft. By the orders of the President this draft was to be made in all the States on the third day of September last past, but owing to the want of an enrollment of the militia in one State as well as in many others, it was subsequently ordered that the draft should be made by the Governors in the several States as soon as possible after the first day appointed.

This draft is therefore made in pursuance of the Constitution and laws of the United States, and cannot be obeyed. Resistance to it is resistance to the Laws of the United States. It has already been executed in most of our loyal sister States, and must be executed in this State.

The President as the Commander-in-Chief of the army of the United States, and of the militia of the several states when called into actual service, has further, by his proclamation of September 24th. 1862, ordered that all persons resisting militia drafts shall be subject to Court-martial, liable to trial and punishment by Courts-Martial and military Commissions.

Resistance to this draft is a violation of laws that will bring swift severe and Condign punishment to those who should attempt it. My Chief Executive Officer of this State, it is my duty to execute this draft. A sufficient military force has been employed to protect the officers who have been intrusted with the execution of this law in your County, to enforce obedience to it and promptly to suppress any tumultuous or riotous proceedings.

I trust it will not become necessary to employ force in order to enforce the laws and maintain peace in your community, but should it become necessary I shall, not shrink from the responsibilities which the laws impose upon me. Your County and its several towns are worthy have been justly and fairly tested in the apportionment of the number of men required, and leniency was even shown you by extension of time in order that volunteers or substitutes might be provided. If bloodshed should occur, the responsibility must fall upon the heads of those who resist the laws. — My duty is to see them enforced. The disgraceful scenes that recently occurred in a neighboring County shall not be re-enacted in your community!

I have thus forcibly addressed you, in order that those who may have rashly contemplated resistance to the majesty of the law, may, upon reflection, abandon it, and also to assure you that resistance will be in vain; misfortune, misery and punishment alone can follow such resistance. A government that has a million of armed men in the field to enforce the laws in the revolted states, can and will speedily and promptly enforce them here.

Wherever resistance to this draft has been attempted in any other State, it has been promptly checked, and the draft has been enforced. Let those amongst you who have thought of resistance, think of the consequences that would entail upon them and their families, and if love of our country and regard for its laws are insufficient to check their madness, let love for their families and regard for their own safety and welfare check them. Once more I call upon you quietly to submit to the laws of our country and its legally constituted authorities.

(L.S.) In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed, at Madison, this 17th. day of November, A.D. 1862.

Proclamation.

By the Governor of the State of Tennessee.

Whereas, by resolution of the General Assembly of this State, passed on the fifth day of the present month, the President of the United States, his Administration, the Legislature, and people of this State were severely censured, and charged with many and flagitious crimes, and offences against the Constitution, and laws of the United States, and of this State, and it is declared by said resolution, that the people of Tennessee are bound by the most sacred obligations to arrest the further progress of such unconstitutional measures, and to vindicate the violated rights of the State, and of the people thereof, and in order that the people of Tennessee may be more fully and explicitly advised concerning the particular character of such crimes, misdemeanors, and offences, as are charged against the President of the United States, and the Executive Officers of this State, and of the manner in which they have violated the Constitution and laws of the United States, and of this State, and the rights of the people thereof, and in order that the people may be advised of the time when, and the manner in which they are required to arrest the further progress of such unconstitutional measures, and to vindicate the violated rights of the State, and

7th. At the expiration of two years service, to any soldier who may be honorably discharged after two years service, the remainder of the bounty bills be paid $ 40.00.

The Government shall not require that he re-enlist for the full period of three years, and that shall be mustered honorably out of the Service before the expiration of their term of enlistment they shall receive, upon being mustered out, the whole amount of bounty remaining unpaid, the same as the full term had been served. The legal heirs of recruits who die in service shall be entitled to receive the whole bounty remaining unpaid at the time of the soldiers death.

Veterans receive one months pay in advance and bounty and premium of $102, and enlistments as heretofore published, and may enlist in any old or new regiments.

Persons not veterans, enlisting in any of the new organizations in this State, to wit: the 35th. Infantry, or any of the new Artillery Companies, will receive one months pay in advance, and the ordinary bounty of $100. as heretofore published.

Besides the 35th. regiment and the artillery companies, now in process of organization, no new organizations will be formed, but recruiting will be confined to old regiments.

In furnishing the number of men required from each town or ward, by volunteering before the 5th. day of January, such town or ward will be exempt from the draft, mentioned in the proclamation of the President, and which is to be made to fill the deficiency then existing in the State.

If it should be found that any deficiency arising on the present draft, or existing on any previous calls, in any of the States, will be made up by the draft on the 5th of January next.

Enlistments for old regiments may be made through the Recruiting Officers, and through recruiting officers stationed for that purpose from the field. The whole subject of the draft, recruiting and enlistments are under the control of the Provost Marshal General and his assistants.

If the people of Pennsylvania have evinced their patriotism heretofore on every occasion where the nation has made a call for men in the present great national struggle, we think they will not fail to fill their quota of Volunteers under this call, by the appointed day.

The rebellion has received many a severe blow during the past year; it has been crippled and hemmed down; cut its supplies of aid from without have failed; the best able Rebel Generals in its service, have been driven into the ranks; its armies have been beaten in the field, its resources exhausted with its treasury bare in the field. Under these circumstances, shall our National Government shall our brave men in the field, call in vain
